MS Dhoni becomes brand ambassador of Jharkhand

Surya Sarathi Ray New Delhi, Nov 24

THARKHAND government has roped in Ma-U hendra Singh Dhoni as the state's brand ambassador for development. The flamboyant local cricketing icon will campaign for the state in its first-ever global investors' summit scheduled on February 16-17 next year, state's industry secretary Sunil Kumar Barnwal said.

television commercial with Dhoni. We will start airing it from next month. It will speak about Momentum Jharkhand Global Investors' Summit," Banwal said. The maiden event aims to establish the state as a premier investment destination for both foreign and domestic investors.

Since it became a state carving out the southern part of Bihar in 2000, Jharkahand had never had any brand ambassador to promote the state to the investors' community. Dhoni had been promoting govern-

"We have already done a mentschemes like Sarva Siksha Abhiyan. The former test captain for the country has been among the most frequently-seen sports star on television.

> The limited overs captain tops the list of top 10 sports stars with the maximum commercial airtime captured in the first half of 2016, overtaking current Test captain Virat Kohli, as per the latest data by AdEx India, a division of Television Audience Measurement (TAM) Media Research.

Jharkhand is endowed with natural resources, but the state had never projected itself among the investors' community. The two-day global investor summit will showcase the strength and industrial prowess of the state and provide a platform for interaction with industry leaders, policy makers, investors and other stakeholders.

Roadshows have already been held in Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Delhi, Kolkata and Mumbai apart from in San Francisco in the US. A team led by Banwal would also visit China and Singapore soon. In the domestic roadshows, the government has already received 27 investment proposals worth around Rs one lakh crore across various focus sectors such as auto, energy infrastructure, agri & food processing, mines & minerals and industrial in frastructure among others.

Banwal said the state has also signed some crucial agreements with global corporations such as CISCO and Oracle to impart skills for a technology-centric future. Two MoUs have also been signed with technology maior Hewlett Packard for ehealthcare and tele-auction Cement major ACC Ltd has also signed initial pact for capacity expansion in the state.

He said auto majors Honda and TVS have evinced interests to set up two-wheeler assembly units in the state. Ashok Leyaland is also eager to invest in the state.

Terming food processing as one of the focus areas of the state, he said investment worth Rs11,000 has already taken place in the last two years and an additional Rs 20,000 crore investment is likely in the sector in the next one year.

Hyderabad, Nov 24: Hyderabad is all set to host the third leg as well as the finals of the third season of the Coca-Cola International Premier Tennis League (IPTL) with top-seed ed players including Roger Federer and Serena Williams.

Hyderabad to host

IPTL from Dec 9-11

Announcing this, Mahesh Bhupathi, founder and promoter of the Coca-Cola IPTL, said that all four IPTL teams would be playing at the Gachibowli stadium on December 9 and 10, 2016, followed by the IPTL finals on December 11, 2016. "Tennis is a much loved sport in South India and bringing the best players from the world to a variety of venues and regions across Asia has always been IPTL's core focus. We are grateful for the support extended by the Telangana government to make this possible," said Bhupathi. "This season required us to make some difficult choices and we have worked hard to bring Season 2016 to life across three host cities. The first two legs will be in Tokyo and Singapore before we culminate in Hyderabad, he added. The third season of the IPTL will commence in Tokyo from Dec 2-4 and move to Singapore from Dec 6-8 before reaching Hyderabad from Dec 9-11. The season will witness a total of 17 matches, with each of the four teams playing eight matches in a customized round robin format. "With the four city-based IPTL teams boasting of the best tennis players in the world, tennis aficionados across the south will have a rare opportunity to watch live, international tennis idols and national heroes, amongst a line-up of 30 of the best international tennis players currently and from the history books, as they battle it out for the coveted IPTL trophy and the prize money that is on offer. "We are excited to be moving home base, from Delhi to Hyderabad, to connect with a new demography of the Indian Tennis enthusiast. After two satisfying years in Delhi, the opportunity to call another city "home of the Indian Aces" is both exhilarating and exciting. We look forward to having the city come out in large numbers to support our very own Indian Ace, home-girl Sania Mirza amongst a spectacular line-up of international tennis stars. The Gachibowli stadium provides the perfect venue for a tennis event of such prestigious international standing," Siddhesh Sharma, co-owner of the IPTL India franchise, the Indian Aces, said.

FIPB clears FDI proposals worth ₹94 crore

New Delhi. Nov 24: Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB) on Thursday said it has approved four FDI proposals entailing overseas investments of about ₹93.81 crore including that of Dr Reddy's and Oxford University Press.

Based on the FIPB recommendations "in its 241st meeting held on October 27, 2016, the Central Government has approved four FDI proposals. The proposals approved included Dr Reddy's Laboratories Ltd's foreign investment worth ₹36 crore," a finance ministry statement said.

The Board also cleared proposals of M/s Quintillion Business Media Pvt Ltd and M/s BMJ Group India Pvt Ltd. Headed by economic affairs secretary Shaktikanta Das, FIPB also cleared Oxford University Press foreign investment proposal worth ₹44.41 crore. Four other proposals which were rejected included that of Harris Communications Systems India Pvt Ltd, Schoeller Technologies India Pvt Ltd and Barracuda Camouflage Pvt Ltd. Besides, eight proposals, including that of Flag Telecom Singapore Pte Ltd were deferred.
