New Delhi, Aug 16

SSUERS of rupee-denominated bonds, also known as L masala bonds, will not have to comply with certain rules under the companies law.

In this regard, corporate affairs ministry has issued a notification — which would also provide more clarity on the regulatory framework for rupee-denominated bonds. The move comes against the

A senior ministry official said the move would provide clarity on the applicability of the rules on such bond issues as well as help in the ease of doing business. Among others, provisions pertaining to prospectus and allotment of securities under the Companies Act would not be applicable to issuance of rupee-denominated bonds.

Issuance of these bonds to overseas investors is regulated by the Reserve Bank of India as part of External Commercial Borrowing policy framework. The ministry's latest notification, dated August 12, follows a clarification issued earlier this month on the issue follow ing consultations with RBI. Recently, country's largest private sector mortgage lender HDFCraised₹30billion(₹3,000 crore) by issuing the world's first ever rupee-denominated bond outside India. # SC seeks Bharti, Idea response on RCom plea against TDSAT order

Indu Bhan

New Delhi, Aug 16: The Supreme Court on Tuesday soughtresponsefromBharti Airtel and Idea Cellular on an appeal by Reliance Communications (RCom) challenging a part of the TDSAT judgment that held that Interconnect Usage Charges for SMS Termination (SMSTC) were payable at the rate of 10 paise per SMS in respect of Interconnect Agreements.

"This is contrary to the regime of "Bill and Keep" which was followed by all telecom operators at that time (2012). Under the "Bill and Keep" regime, the telecom operators neither raised bills on each other nor was any payment made towards SMS TC," RCom said.

A bench headed by justice Kurian Joseph admitted RCom's appeals and tagged them with Aircel's similar petition, which is pending before it since 2012. Even Tata Teleservices' pleas on a similar issue against Idea Cellular and Vodafone India are pending before the apex court.

While relying on its September 2012 decision, the Anil Ambani firm said that the TDSAT in March had ignored the subsequent fact that Traihad in May 2013 issued the Short Message Service (SMS) Termination Charges Regulation, 2013 which prescribed that SMS TC should be cost based and, therefore, 2 by imposing any SMSTC.

RCom challenged a part of the TDSAT judgment that held that Interconnect Usage Charges for SMS Termination were payable at 10 paise per SMS in respect of Interconnect Agreements paise per SMS was payable. "The tribunal failed to appreciate that in view of 2013 Regulation, the decision in Aircel matter was no longer good law and had to be reconsidered by TD-SAT," the company stated in its appeals.

According to RCom, having concluded that SMS TC has to be cost based; TDSAT could not have then held that SMS TC @ 10 paise per SMS would be payable where the Interconnect Agreement either contained a clause for payment of SMS TC or was silent in that respect.

TDSAT has ignored that under the contract law, the agreements can be both oral and in writing and even expressed by conduct. it said, adding that since neither party had raised any bills or made or accepted any payment for SMSTC at any time, the Bill and Keep arrangement between the parties "cannot be modified unilaterally"
